Advent of Fall Fails to Chill Ardor of Participants in Open Air Functions—Entertainments of Other Kinds Also Attract Members of the Fashionable Set.

Horse shows, racing and other outdoor sports still continue to form the chief attractions for society. The two days' exhibition on the Piping Rock grounds, at Locust Valley, last week drew the fashionable world in large numbers, as have all the shows of the fall. Children have been much in evidence at these events, the Payne Whitney, the Harry Payne Whitney, the Hittcock, the David Wagstaff, Otto Kahn and John Converse children being among the interested spectators and exhibitors at the Mineola, Tuxedo, Morristown and other exhibitions.

Next Saturday the first part of a two days' meet of the Piping Rock Racing Association will be held on the picturesque grounds of the club at Locust Valley. The final races will take place on October 18.

The Motor Touring Society, composed of twenty-five young men well known in society, will leave here next Saturday on their annual autumn run and go to Lenox. Albert Eugene Gallatin is president of the society; Percy R. Pyne, 2d, vice-president, and M. Orme Wilson, Jr., secretary. Some of the other members are Vincent Astor, Harold S. Vanderbilt, R. Thornton Wilson, Oliver Iselin, William B. Osgood Field, Marshall R. Kernochan, Ogden Mills Reid, Robert Golet, Russell Hollister, Malcolm D. Sloane, Francis L. C. Hopkin, McKim Hollins and William W. Hoffman.

The fifth annual ball for the benefit of the Nassau Hospital, at Mineola, Long Island, will be held on Friday, October 17, at the Garden City Hotel. The fancy dress ball last year was such a success that it was decided to repeat it this year. Tickets at $5 each can be obtained from Mrs. Willard D. Straight, Old Westbury, Long Island.

Among the patronesses are Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney, Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mrs. James A. Burden, Mrs. Lloyd S. Bryce, Mrs. Thomas Hittcock, Jr., Mrs. Middleton S. Burdill, Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin, Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. Joseph S. Stevens, Mrs. Richard Trimble, Mrs. Egerton L. Winthrop, Jr., Mrs. Charles Steele, Mrs. Stanley Mortimer, Mrs. E. D. Morgan, Mrs. Oliver W. Bird, Mrs. Ralph Pulitzer, Mrs. E. C. Willets, Mrs. Charles R. Scott and Miss Atala Thayer.

One of the most interesting of the fall engagements is that of Miss Laura Virginia Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Egerton Webb, of No. 925 Park avenue, to Jorge Andre, of this city, which was announced last Thursday. Miss Webb was introduced to society three years ago. She is a granddaughter of the late General James Watson Webb, and a niece of Dr. W. Seward Webb and Major G. Creighton Webb. On her mother's side she is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund D. Randolph, of Mount St. Vincent, N. Y., and a niece of Mrs. Richard Trimble and Edmund Randolph. Mr. Andre, whose mother lives in Hamburg, Germany, is a cousin of the late Baron von Andre, who married a sister of Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew. The wedding will probably take place this winter in New York.

Announcement was made last week of the engagement of Miss Ethelinda A. Morgan, daughter of the late William Rogers Morgan, of Newport, R. I., to James Lloyd Derby, of this city. Miss Morgan is a sister of Mrs. Arthur Goodby. She is now with her brother, Dudley Selden Morgan, at Roslyn, Long Island. Mr. Derby was graduated from Harvard in 1908 and is a member of the Union Club. His brother, Dr. Richard Derby, married Miss Ethel Roosevelt, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, last April at Oyster Bay, Long Island.

Mrs. Joseph E. Janvrin, of No. 515 Madison avenue, announced last Tuesday the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marguerite L. Janvrin, to Dr. Walter Wood Adams, of this city. Miss Janvrin was introduced to society three years ago. Dr. Edmund R. Janvrin is her brother. Dr. Adams was graduated from Harvard in 1905.

The Rev. Dr. Walter D. Buchanan, of No. 395 West 166th street, announced last Wednesday the engagement of his daughter, Miss Grace D. Buchanan, to Arthur H. Sherwood, of this city, son of the Rev. H. W. Sherwood, of Hudson Falls, N. Y. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Mildred Van Schaick, daughter of Mrs. John B. Van Schaick, will be married to Arthur Gwynne, son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Walker Gwynne, of Summit, N. J., next Thursday afternoon in the Church of the Transfiguration. Mr. Gwynne's father will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception at the home of Mrs. Van Schaick, No. 12 East 21st street. Miss Helen B. Gwynne, sister of the bridegroom, will be Miss Van Schaick's only attendant. W. Lee Gwynne will act as his brother's best man, and the ushers chosen are William Rhinelandier Stewart, Jr., and Gordon McAllister, of this city; De Forest Lyon, Harry C. Beste and Fred W. Gwynne, of Summit, and Malcolm Hunter, of Glen Ridge, N. J.

Francis H. McAdoo, son of the Secretary of the Treasury, William G. McAdoo, will be best man and Edward B. Whitman and Barclay H. Farr, of this city, will be ushers at the wedding of Miss Constance Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Tingley Wall, to Frederick B. Read, which will take place next Saturday in St. Stephen's Church, Providence.

In the Cathedral of the Incarnation, Garden City, Long Island, on Saturday, October 18, Miss Audrey Fairlie Townsend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nicoll Townsend, will become the bride of Gordon Rutherford McAllister, of Philadelphia and Baltimore. Miss Townsend is a sister of Edward Nicoll Townsend, Jr., who married Miss Beatrice Nicholas at Babylon, Long Island, last October.

The marriage of Miss Rosamond Burr, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Burr, to Albert B. Kerr, son of the late Senator James Kerr, of Pennsylvania, will take place at 1 o'clock next Saturday on the lawn of her parents' country place in Lawrence, Long Island. Miss Frances Burr, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss

Ruth Wales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Wales, and Miss Mollie Burr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heman M. Burr, of Boston. Walter B. Kerr will act as

William Greenough, Lanier McKee, Edwin Olaf Holter and Dr. Joseph S. Wheelwright. A reception and breakfast will follow the ceremony. Guests from New York will go by special train from the Pennsylvania station.

Miss Justine Ingersoll, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. Robert Taylor Varnum, will be married to Dr. Harold Sears Arnold, of New Haven, at noon on Thursday, October 20, at the home of Mrs. George T. Maxwell, No. 14 East 77th street. Mr. Roger M. Minton will be her sister's matron of honor, and Miss Eugene Philbin and Miss Josephine Nicoll will be bridesmaids. Miss Ingersoll is now with her sister, Mrs. Minton, at Brightwaters, Long Island. Mr. and Mrs. Varnum are due to arrive from Europe, where they have been for three months, on October 26.

The marriage of Miss Eloise Talcott, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. Edward Wyckoff Harris, of No. 55 West 54th street, to Horace Dorsey Newson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dorsey Newson, of Llewellyn Park, West Orange, N.

J., on Saturday, October 25, at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Harris, at Rye, N. Y. The wedding will be a small one, and only relatives and intimate friends have been invited. The bride's only attendant will be her sister, Miss Henrietta Talcott, and Gerard Jackson will act as Mr. Newson's best man.

The marriage of Miss Edith Landon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hutton Landon, to Eugene Mitchell Sawyer, of Tyrone, N. M., will be celebrated in St. Bartholomew's Church on November 6. Miss Landon will be attended by her two sisters, the Misses Agnes and Cornelia Landon. Mr. and Mrs. Landon and the Misses Landon, who are at Shadowlawn, their country home at Oyster Bay, Long Island, will return to New York this week for the winter.

Miss Paula Fleitmann, a daughter of Mrs. Ewald Fleitmann, will be married to Berne Evans, son of Dr. Cadwalader Evans, of Pittsburgh, on November 14, in the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church. Mrs. J. G. Blaine Ewing will serve as sister as matron of honor, and her four little nieces and nephews, two children of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander W. Watjen, of Germany, and two of Mr. and Mrs. Louis

Watjen, of Greenwich, Conn., will be flower girls and pages. A reception will follow at the home of Mrs. Fleitmann, No. 42 West 77th street. Mr. Evans will give his farewell bachelor dinner in Pittsburgh on October 31.

Miss Elizabeth G. B. Fowler, daughter of Surrogate and Mrs. Robert Ludlow Fowler, will be married to Dawson Coleman Glover, son of Mrs. Henry S. Glover, on November 1 at the home of her parents, No. 25 West 19th street. Owing to mourning and the fact that Mrs. Fowler is in poor health, the wedding will be small and quiet, and only relatives and a few intimate friends will witness the ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. John Mockridge. The bride will have no attendants. John Le Roy Glover will be his brother's best man.

Miss Edith Logan, daughter of Mrs. John A. Logan, will be married to Dewees W. Dilworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Dilworth, in St. Thomas's Church on November 25. After the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of Mrs. Logan, No. 17 West 56th street.

The marriage of Miss Mary H. Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brooks, of No. 51 West 52d street, to Ashbel T. Wall, Jr., of Providence, will not take place until next June. Miss Brooks was a debutante of last season. Mr. Wall is a senior at Princeton.

One of the important early fall weddings was that of Miss Madeleine Hayward Smith, daughter of Dock Commissioner Robert A. C. Smith and Mrs. Smith, to Irvin Williams Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Day, of Utica, N. Y., which took place on Saturday, September 28, in Christ Church, Greenwich, Conn. The Rev. Dr. Leighton Palms, of St. Bartholomew's Church, assisted by the Rev. M. George Thompson, performed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at Miralta, Field Point Park, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Miss Margaret A. Smith was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Holmes, Miss May A. Powell, Miss Edith L. Adams, Miss Louise Day, Miss Charlotte Williams, Miss May Gray Runkle, Miss Helen S. Williams and Miss Marjorie G. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Dater McLean, whose marriage took place last Tuesday in the chantry of St. Thomas's Church, will spend a part of their honeymoon in Italy. On their return they will make their home in Morristown, N. J. Mrs. McLean was Miss Florence Sims Wyeth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Allan Wyeth.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Dennis have closed their country home, at Norfolk, Conn., and gone to Tuxedo Park for the autumn.

Mrs. Gardner Brown has returned to town for the winter, and is at her home, in Madison avenue.

Mrs. George A. Robbins and her son, Arden Robbins, have returned from Bar Harbor, Me., to their home, in this city, for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burden, of Cedar Cove, Cazenovia, N. Y., are at the Gotham for a short visit.

Count and Countess Emilio del Sera are visiting the countess' mother, Mrs. Walden Pell, at Esopus, N. Y.
